Summary of the Holy Father's words at the General Audience Wednesday 30th June 2021

Dear Brothers and Sisters, in our continuing catechesis on Saint Paul's Letter to the Galatians, we now reflect on Paul's exercise of his apostolic authority. With fatherly care, Paul reminds the Galatians of his preaching on the new life brought by Christ and reiterates the Gospel message of freedom from the commands of the Mosaic law. Paul defends his authority as an Apostle, describing with honesty his own journey of conversion – from fierce persecutor of the Church to his call by God's mercy to know the Risen Jesus, and to become an Apostle to the nations. In emphasizing the power of the Lord's mercy at work in his own life, Paul invites us to reflect on how God enters into our lives, surprising us, renewing and radically transforming us by the Holy Spirit, and strengthening us to become missionary disciples for the spread of the Gospel and its liberating message.

We remember those who have asked for our prayers: Deacon David Hebbes, Fr Donal Daly, Andrea Brushneen, Sue Hartnett, Margaret Coleman, Cecilia Edwards, Marie O'Connor, Pat O'Ryan, David Burke, Margaret Withers, Cheryl Loy, Natalia Price, Sharon Scott, Christopher Browne, Paul Hawketts, Joanne Beamish, Kathy Smith, Joan O'Connell. In compliance with the requirements of GDPR permission must be sought from an individual (or next of kin) before their name can be added to a list of those who are sick.
